Annual Index to Periodicals.

With the help of the Annual Index, the student or writer can easily ascertain in what Periodicals he can read articles on almost any subject; and, as the more recent Magazines and Reviews are to be found in the newer as well as the old Public Libraries, these mines of current thought need no longer remain unexplored on the shelves with such a handy Key, issued at a price within the means of all.

The Annual Index is universally admitted to be the best work in its line ever published, and "an absolutely indispensable work of reference" for LIBRARIANS, BOOKSELLERS, JOURNALISTS, CLERGYMEN, and all CONTRIBUTORS to the literature of our time.

The second, third, fourth and fifth volumes, which covered the years 1891, 1892, 1893 and 1894, contained many improvements on the first issue. These five volumes are still to be had at 5s. ; or 5s. 6d. post free.

The sixth volume, covering 1895, being greatly enlarged and elaborated, is issued at 10s.

VOL. I., covering the year 1890.

VOL. II., covering the year 1891.

VOL. III., covering the year 1892.

VOL. IV., covering the year 1893.

VOL. V., covering the year 1894.

5s. per Volume; or 5s. 6d. post free.

Volume VI., covering the year 1895, 10s. post free.
